Mrs. Nadia Oanea (Paper 1)

Nadia has a Bachelor Diploma in Economics, a Postgraduate Diploma in Financial Management and a Master Diploma in Public Administration. She is a full member of the Chamber of Tax Consultants in Romania (CCFR) and of the Body of Chartered Certified Accountants in Romania (CECCAR).

Nadia has 18 years of experience in the field of taxation, out of which 8 years as state tax inspector, especially for VAT reimbursements, and 9 years in tax advisory. Besides her extensive experience in domestic tax issues, Nadia is specialized in international taxation, covering direct and indirect tax implications of cross border transactions, transfer pricing, expats and high net worth individual taxation. She was awarded the CCH prize by CIOT for the highest mark in ADIT Transfer Pricing paper in December 2014 examination session.

Mr. Constantinos Kounnis (Paper 3.02)

Constantinos is a Cambridge University graduate with a degree in Economics and a professional Chartered Accountant and member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales (ICAEW), as well as the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Cyprus (ICPAC).

Constantinos has qualified with Deloitte London and has been involved in the audit and advisory of a number of high profile public and private companies. Subsequently to this he has also worked for KPMG Cyprus, and has gained significant experience in the field of international taxation.

Constantinos is also an experienced tax practitioner and holds the prestigious ADIT qualification with Distinction ranking amongst the first 10 worldwide candidates in 2017. His scripts for 2 out of the 3 papers, Principles in International Taxation and EU VAT, have been published on the institute's website as recommended candidate scripts.

Constantinos is also a licensed Insolvency Practitioner and he was ranked 1st in the Sept-2016 Insolvency Practitioner exams.
